

KV 18 Working with language

1 Find the new forms: sentence adverbs

Complete the extract from the text on page 51 in your book.

As you will see from my CV, I am 15 years old and preparing for my GCSE exams. I enjoy working with children very much; _____ (1), I will be a teacher one day. _____ (2), I am very interested in the opportunity you offer. _____ (3), as I have had a Saturday job for the last year as a children's party organiser, I already have a lot of experience in leading games and activities and in encouraging children of all ages to take part. _____ (4), I enjoy sports activities the most. At a summer camp with a lake, _____ (5) a counsellor with good swimming skills could be a useful addition to your team. _____ (6), I have good canoeing skills.

2 Find the rule

a) Complete the rule with the given words. Then complete the examples in the grid below.

linking    formal    commenting    sentence

_____ (1) adverbs can make a text sound more _____ (2).

They come in two categories: _____ (3) adverbs (e.g. 'therefore' and 'nevertheless') and _____ (4) adverbs (e.g. 'hopefully' and 'personally').

Some linking adverbs	Some commenting adverbs
Additionally, fu _____ (5), ho _____ (6), mo _____ (7), nevertheless	Hopefully, cer _____ (8), luckily, pe _____ (9), surely, unf _____ (10)

b) Match the sentence adverbs with similar meanings.

- |                 |                 |
|-----------------|-----------------|
| 1. additionally | a) moreover     |
| 2. furthermore  | b) nevertheless |
| 3. luckily      | c) also         |
| 4. however      | d) as a result  |
| 5. therefore    | e) fortunately  |

